

Nation

Jump in uninsured signals need to implement health reform: Economy takes a toll on health coverage

- Census Bureau: Millions more Americans falling into poverty

EPA considers proposals to regulate coal ash: Hundreds of coal ash dumps, waste ponds may threaten health

Q&A with HHS' Howard Koh: 'Concepts of public health quality must be embedded into the culture': Quality improvement efforts advancing under federal leadership

Prevention saves lives as well as money, new research confirms: Services could save 2 million lives a year

Illicit drug use on the rise in United States, new federal statistics show

CDC study: Number of annual flu deaths difficult to predict: Study examines two decades of data

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Hip-hop, HIV awareness event screens thousands in Houston

States in Brief

Healthy You

Know about diabetes to lower your risks

- Diabetes during pregnancy

Health Findings

Health Findings

General

Save the date: Smart growth focus of February national conference

APHA News

APHA Annual Meeting to be held in Denver this month: Nation's premier public health event

- Annual Meeting film festival to feature documentary screening
- APHA hosts one-day summit on health reform in Denver on Nov. 6

APHA Get Ready campaign: Check your stockpiles with Nov. 7 time change

APHA helps quash Prevention and Public Health Fund cuts

APHA video, fact sheet bring home national acclaim

New edition of book makes the case for community prevention

President's Column

Adopting a culture of health, improving our national well-being: Parting words from APHA's president

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Student Focus

New Jersey students supporting sustainability for Zimbabwe village

Students in Brief

Letters

Get Ready campaign focus of importance

In Memoriam

Web-only News

Online-only: Majority of teens receive formal sex education, but some topics lacking

Online-only: Worldwide maternal mortality on the decline, but much more work is needed

Online-only: Public health extras: News roundup on smoking, prostate cancer, lead and more

Newsmakers: November/December 2010

Resources: November/December 2010