

The Nation's Health, October 2012, Volume 42, No. 8

Nation

Undergraduate public health education expands nationwide: Classes, programs expand for students

Paid sick leave making inroads but lagging at national level: Millions lack access to vital job benefit

Leaders offer guidance on changes to governmental public health

Tobacco use down among U.S. youth, but still a major concern

Report: Federal agencies must work on disaster resilience

CDC program seeks volunteers to help end polio cases worldwide

Q&A with 'Passages' author, lecturer and 140th Annual Meeting keynote speaker Gail Sheehy: Public health professionals 'must loudly advocate for reform'

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Colorado launches Man Therapy to break down mental health stigmas

Innovative teen marketing pays off in Nebraska, Philadelphia

States in Brief

Globe

Ebola cases said to be contained in Uganda, Democratic Republic of Congo

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

Tips for preventing fires from happening at home

Health Findings

Health Findings

Letters

Letters

APHA News

APHA's 140th Annual Meeting to kick off in San Francisco this month: 13,000 expected

- APHA launches smartphone, tablet app for use at Annual Meeting

APHA publications branching out with more digital options

Historic struggle for U.S. health reform recounted in book of political cartoons

APHA website offers new resources, tools on Affordable Care Act, reform

APHA tools aid health departments with public health policy work

Winners announced for APHA's 2012 member group elections

APHA Advocates

APHA welcomes new staff

President's Column

Pride in U.K. health service raises bar for U.S. system

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Web-only News

Online-only: Elderly patients at risk because of erroneous prescriptions [e40]

Online-only: Obesity, inactivity a concern for children with special health care needs [e41]

Online-only: Time parents spend with teens important for mental health [e42]

Online-only: Public health extras: News on walking, TB, reform, apps, infections [e43]

Newsmakers: October 2012 [e44]

Resources: August 2012 [e45]