

The Nation's Health, November/December 2012, Volume 42, No. 9

Nation

For many uninsured Americans, Medicaid expansion is critical: States' decisions have lifesaving impact

New national strategy aims to transform attitudes, end suicides: 10-year plan created

US uninsurance rate falls, but 48.6 million still lack coverage: Affordable Care Act contributes to gains

Public health workers respond to nationwide West Nile virus outbreak

Report: US health system wasted $750 billion in 2009

Emergency preparedness improving among Americans, but gaps remain

Study: High blood pressure woes plague millions

Q&A with AIDS Director Grant Colfax: Public health has a key role to play in HIV prevention efforts: Work remains, but 'We've made meaningful, tangible progress'

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Advocates celebrate fluoridation wins in Portland, Ore., Phoenix; Wichita next

States in Brief

Globe

Global child deaths down, but still tragically high, UNICEF report finds

PAHO, APHA agree to cooperate, strengthen their relationship

Globe in brief

On the Job

Businesses offering more benefits aimed at improving employee health

On the Job in brief

Healthy You

Making health a holiday tradition, any time of year

Health Findings

- Study: Sodium intake affects children's blood pressure levels

APHA News

Graphic shows how public health saves lives, costs: Health advocates encouraged to share free APHA tool

APHA's webinars sharing innovative approaches: Free online sessions cover range of public health topics

APHA Annual Meeting coverage in January issue

Members take the reins in APHA's annual summer advocacy effort

APHA seeks funding stories to put a face on public health

APHA's Statistics Section takes on a new, more descriptive moniker

APHA Advocates

President's Column

Looking back, moving forward: APHA president ends his term

Journal Watch

In memoriam

Web-only News

Online-only: Survey finds some kids use drugs, drink during school day [e46]

Online-only: Rural residents more likely to be obese, study finds [e47]

Online-only: Even short bouts of daily exercise could help obese kids improve health [e48]

Online-only: Health factors big in 2012 presidential, party platforms [e50]

Online-only: Public health extras: News on pregnant students, child flu risks, coal use [e49]

Newsmakers: November/December 2012 [e51]

Resources: November/December 2012 [e52]