

The Nation's Health, October 2015, Volume 45, No. 8

Nation

As nation ages, cognitive decline growing as public health issue: Programs work to keep seniors healthy

Health advocates working to prevent athlete concussions: Student, professional players at risk

Public health messaging helps public understand environmental health: Toolkit available

EPA's Clean Power Plan tackles climate change, improves health

Updated National HIV/AIDS Strategy offers blueprint to 2020

CDC: One in five adult Americans has disability: Mobility limitations most common disability among Americans

Americans in pain have worse health status, use complementary treatment

Infant mortality rates decline overall, but racial, ethnic gaps still remain

Nation in Brief

State & Local

South Carolina group uses radio soap operas to promote Hispanic health

States in Brief

Healthy You

Yoga: A complementary health approach

- Finding your calm: Breathing & meditation

Health Findings

Health Findings

On the Job

Health departments can stop antibiotic-resistant germs' spread

New program brings disabilities, access to public health forefront

On the Job in Brief

General

Correction

APHA News

Q&A: Annual Meeting keynote speaker Freeman Hrabowski: Too few minorities in STEM careers: Building leaders in science through equitable opportunities

Annual Meeting offers opportunities for education: Registration for Oct. 31-Nov. 1 Learning Institutes open now

APHA sexual health book shares information for black Americans

APHA Advocates

APHA in Brief

President's Column

Anti-poverty policy: A priority for public health intervention

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Sections

APHA Section creates task force to revise public health code of ethics

Member Groups in Brief

Letters

Letters

In Memoriam

In memoriam

Web-only News

Online-only: Quitting smoking linked to better quality of life after heart attack, study finds [e42]

Online-only: Not enough gay, bisexual teen boys get tested for HIV, study says [e43]

Online-only: Exiting military for misconduct linked to homelessness risk, study finds [e44]

Online-only: Public health extras: News on school start times, food labeling [e45]

Online-only: Student health extras: Learning from leaders, keeping students safe [e46]

Newsmakers: October 2015 [e47]

Resources: October 2015 [e48]