

The Nation's Health, March 2016, Volume 46, No. 2

Nation

Making public housing in US smoke-free predicted to save lives: New rule proposed

Infectious disease outbreaks pose ongoing threats to health: US, global systems urged to take action

Dietary guidelines help health workers better US eating habits: New toolkit from HHS debuts this month

Q&A with CDC's Hazel Dean: 'We must ensure that all prevention strategies reach all populations equally': Exploring strategies to address tuberculosis, STDs in America

CDC: Majority of overdose deaths are opioid-related

More Hispanic kids have health coverage, but still make up most of uninsured youth

Regular breast cancer screening recommended for ages 50 to 74

Nation in Brief

State & Local

Ohio report: Police, residents can restore trust in minority communities

States in Brief

Globe

Zika declared international public health emergency in wake of spread

Globe in Brief

Healthy You

SIDS: Advice can help keep your baby safe

- Quick tips for protecting your baby

Health Findings

Health Findings

APHA News

Celebrate National Public Health Week April 4-10: NPHW planning resources, fact sheets available online now

APHA's American Journal of Public Health reveals new look, content

APHA Advocates

APHA in Brief

President's Column

Achieving health equity: The crisis in Flint, and what should be done next

Journal Watch

Journal Watch

Student Focus

Leadership Challenge gives student members networking opportunities

Volunteer program immerses students in public health work: EpiAssist moves beyond classroom setting

Web-only News

Online-only: Study: Not enough hospitals addressing ER overcrowding [e6]

Online-only: Marijuana use in college linked to poor health years later [e7]

Online-only: New guidelines could help alcohol industry reduce youth ad exposure [e8]

Online-only: Public health extras: Guinea worm on decline, alcohol taxes lower STDs [e9]

Newsmakers: March 2016 [e10]

Resources: March 2016 [e11]